RESULTS Anti-Oppression Values

The RESULTS logo consists of the word "results" in a white, lowercase, sans-serif font, positioned inside a red speech bubble shape that points downwards and to the left.

RESULTS is a movement of passionate, committed everyday people. Together we use our voices to influence political decisions that will bring an end to poverty. Poverty cannot end as long as oppression exists.

We commit to opposing all forms of oppression, including racism, classism, colonialism, white saviorism, sexism, homophobia, transphobia, ableism, xenophobia, and religious discrimination.

At RESULTS we pledge to create space for all voices, including those of us who are currently experiencing poverty. We will address oppressive behavior in our interactions, families, communities, work, and world. Our strength is rooted in our diversity of experiences, not in our assumptions.

With unearned privilege comes the responsibility to act so the burden to educate and change doesn't fall solely on those experiencing oppression. When we miss the mark on our values, we will acknowledge our mistake, seek forgiveness, learn, and work together as a community to pursue equity.

There are no saviors — only partners, advocates, and allies. We agree to help make the RESULTS movement a respectful, inclusive space.

The face of the eviction epidemic is moms with kids, especially poor moms from predominantly Latino and African American neighborhoods.

While the crisis reaches across race, income, and geography, communities of color have been hit the hardest.

Historic discriminatory housing policies have encouraged white homeownership and have simultaneously created obstacles for African American homeownership and housing stability. From Campaign to Reduce Evictions.

From the theft of indigenous land, the enslavement and exploitation of Africans, the denial of land ownership to black and other communities of color, the creation of federal backed GSEs to support white & suburban homeownership while redlining and disinvesting from entire communities of color, to predatory lending, the destruction of public housing and gentrification of historically black and brown neighborhoods, white supremacist ideology has shaped land & housing policy for centuries. “Once again, one truth – that black homeowners have a higher net worth than black renters – doesn’t yield a simple prescription for a wealth-gap relief. Any proposal that only focuses on increasing black homeownership fails to take into account how fraught the issue can be for black families. . . . Increasing access to a system designed to build white wealth will ultimately not work to build black wealth.”

RENTS ARE RISING IN MOST MARKETS, BUT HOME PRICES ARE RISING EVEN FASTER

Ahmed Gaber for The New York Times

The state eviction moratorium was a lifeline for tenants when their incomes dried up in the early weeks of the coronavirus pandemic. Now the state is taking a risky step as Omicron-driven infections continue to surge: Officials are allowing the ban on evictions to expire on Saturday.

Opinion | The Bill for My Homelessness Was $54,000

Debt is a hidden burden for Americans experiencing homelessness.

 <https://www.nytimes.com>

- Rise in wages have not in pace with rents going up.
- Supply being built for higher end of the market.
- Only 1 in 4 eligible get federal housing assistance, with many enduring long waits.
- Temporary rental assistance, underinvestment ≠ long-term housing investment.
- Evictions (and its harmful consequences) are ongoing & expected to rise.
- Pandemic & housing crisis disproportionately impacted communities of color & other historically disadvantaged communities
