welcome & intro from lakeisha mcvey

Thank you for your interest in joining RESULTS Experts on Poverty cohort. This is a unique opportunity for those with current or past experience living in poverty in the United States to have a platform to share their personal experiences and insight with anti-poverty leaders across the nation.

As a person with lived experience of poverty myself, I know that the negative stereotypes that are pushed onto individuals and families who experience poverty only serve to further divide us. To truly end poverty, we must have the voices of those most impacted at the table, helping to destroy false narratives, and coming up with and implementing real solutions. Only we, as those with lived experience of poverty, truly know the intricacies of what we experience and are the key to changing policies for the better.

Although our experiences with poverty may have many similarities, it's also important to recognize the differences in how we were forced into poverty, the barriers we face while experiencing poverty, the ways we manage to escape poverty, and how those experiences affect our lives afterwards. That is why the Expert on Poverty cohort is comprised of individuals from many backgrounds who each have something unique to contribute while advocating for stronger anti-poverty policies.

By joining the Experts on Poverty, you will be a part of a powerful cohort, be offered training to become a better advocate, be provided with paid speaking and consulting opportunities, influence anti-poverty policy, and shift the narrative around what it's truly like to live in poverty.

We strive to be an inclusive organization, and we commit to opposing all forms of oppression including ableism, ageism, biphobia, classism, colonialism, homophobia, racism, religious discrimination, sexism, transphobia, white saviorism, and xenophobia. We create space for all voices, including those of us who are currently experiencing poverty. We will address oppressive behavior in our interactions, families, communities, work, and world. Our strength is rooted in our diversity of experiences, not in our assumptions. We agree to all help make the RESULTS movement a respectful, inclusive space.

I hope you will consider joining our cohort and be a part of our movement of passionate, committed everyday people.

about the program

What is the RESULTS Experts on Poverty program?

Too often, the voices of low-income Americans are not heard in debates around anti-poverty policies—even though they have the unique experience and knowledge needed to address these issues. Involving and centering people with lived experience of poverty in advocacy is essential in any efforts to end poverty and helps build understanding, reduce stigma and discrimination, and improve the quality, relevance, and impact of anti-poverty policies and programs.

This is why RESULTS launched our Experts on Poverty program in 2015. The Experts on Poverty cohort is a diverse team of advocates from across the nation. They use their firsthand experience of poverty to push for more effective government policies to support low-income Americans. All the Experts have personal experience with food insecurity, lack of affordable and accessible housing, housing instability, and/or federal nutrition programs, tax credits, or other federal “safety net” assistance programs that help millions of Americans make ends meet.

The Experts on Poverty played a key role in RESULTS’ shift to addressing housing policy and are helping shape our U.S. poverty policy strategies and priorities. Experts receive training, support, and inspiration to become stronger leaders in the anti-poverty movement, shifting the narrative around those who experience poverty and highlighting the way anti-poverty policies affect their everyday lives.

The Experts are leaders in the organization and many anti-poverty advocates have mentioned that the work of the Experts provides them with a deeper understanding of the issues and a renewed sense of inspiration for their anti-poverty work.

Frequently Asked Questions

Is there an age minimum to be able to become an Expert on Poverty?

Yes, all Experts on Poverty, just like all RESULTS volunteers, must be over the age of 18.

Do I have to be a U.S. Citizen to apply?

No, all are welcome to apply to become an Expert on Poverty regardless of citizenship status. As long as you have lived experience with poverty in the United States and meet all other requirements, we encourage you to apply.

Do I need previous advocacy experience to apply?

Yes, all applicants must be current RESULTS volunteers.

Are Experts on Poverty compensated for their participation in the program?

Yes, the program is designed to give those with lived experience a platform to offer their insight on policies and share their stories at conferences, through blog posts and videos, panels, in front of members of Congress, etc. Experts are always compensated for speaking and will be informed of how much the compensation is when any speaking opportunities arise.

How many Experts on Poverty are in the cohort?

There can be up to 12 Experts on Poverty at any time. This is to ensure that we can continue to provide adequate compensation and build strong, transformational relationships between members of the cohort.

Will we have to travel?

There are usually numerous opportunities to travel throughout the year. We will continue to follow CDC guidelines for travel, social distancing, and mask mandates to ensure that everyone is safe. Everyone who attends in-person events are required to have full COVID vaccination. Due to the number of requests for Experts on Poverty to speak in person, all Experts on Poverty are now required to have full COVID vaccination to participate in the program.
