Use these discussion questions to guide your planning for a fun and impactful community action this summer. Questions? Reach out to Alicia Stromberg at astromberg@results.org.

Grounding in values and purpose

- When was the last time your group was together?
- What do you want to get out of being together in person?
- What would make this meaningful to you and your team?
- How will this strengthen your advocacy power?

Brainstorm – Outreach outside the box

- Where do you already get together with people in your community? Where do you go for fun and connection?
- Are there groups or organizations in your community that you are eager to connect with? How can you use this moment to reach out?
- What would make this fun?
- What kinds of get-togethers would you look forward to attending?
- What plans do you have where you will already be with people? Can you bring advocacy with you to this?

Plans to make it happen

- When is a good time for your group to come together in person?
- Where will you host your action meeting?
- How will you invite people to your event?
- What are your next steps to move this forward?
- If connecting with other organizations or groups, who will reach out to make the connection?
- If bringing advocacy into your other plans, what do you need to make this happen?
