A story from Muheza, Tanzania

Muheza is a small village in a beautiful rural area

Her child has a fever.... but road is long

How serious is the fever ?

There may be a long wait...to find out

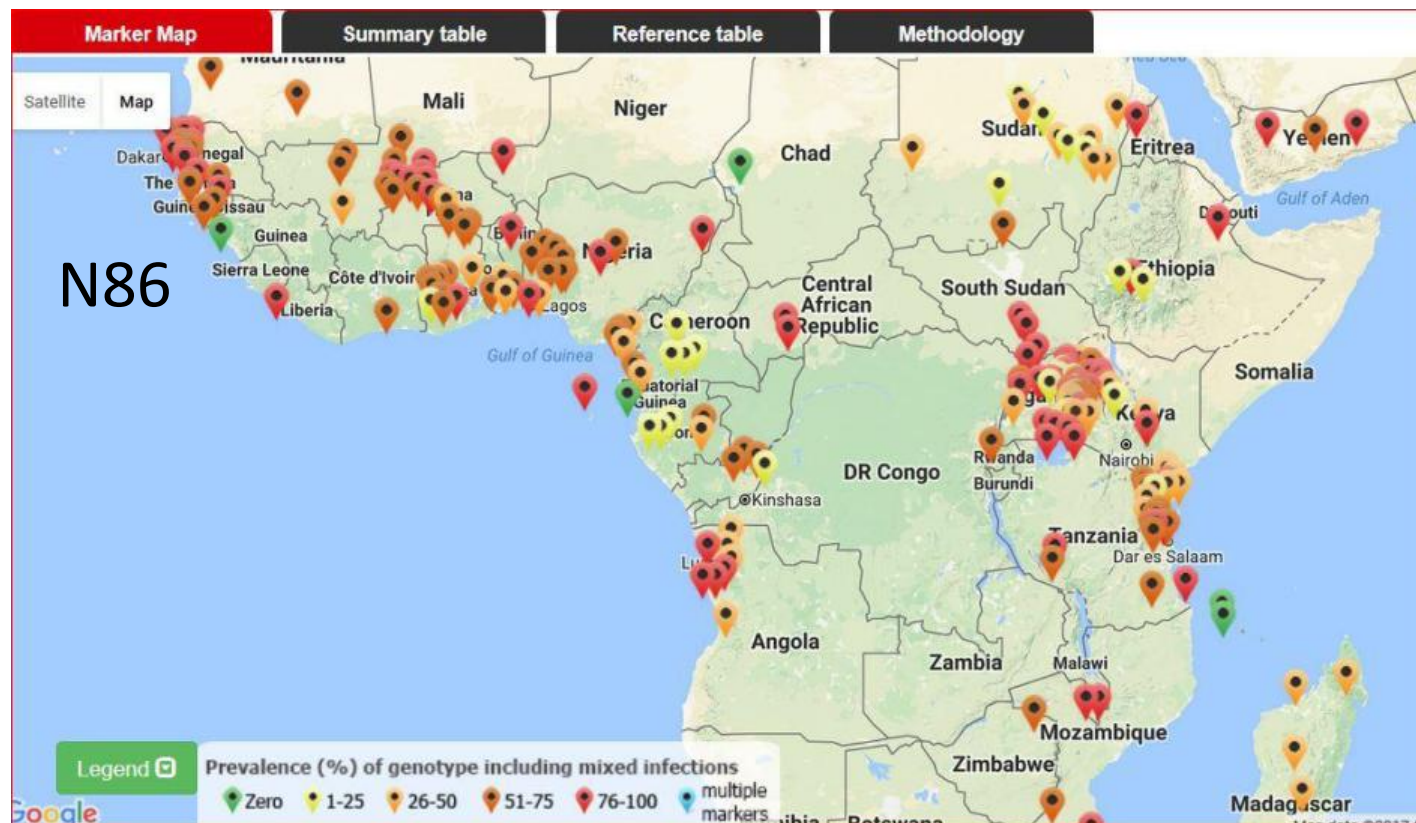

Will the drug treatment be effective?

We work with colleagues to keep track of where antimalarial drugs work....and where they don't

Connecting RESULTS and Tropical Diseases

Malaria episodes have economic costs

Media Action: Continue U.S. commitment to the Global Fund
At the height of the AIDS crisis, the world came together to fight back, pooling its resources and creating the Global Fund to Fight AIDS, Tuberculosis and Malaria. Now almost two decades later, its success has been nothing less than remarkable. Since 2002, the Global Fund...

Call Today! Urge Congress to Fund Priorities that Reduce Poverty and Save Lives
Congress is making important decisions right now about funding priorities for the next budget. Sadly, policies that help alleviate poverty in the U.S. and around the world could get ignored. But with your help, we can avoid that outcome. Help set the agenda by telling...

Media Action: We Must Address the Housing Crisis
Families looking for affordable housing are in crisis. Since 1960, renters' median earnings have gone up 5 percent while rents have risen by 61 percent -- and only 37 affordable and available rental homes exist for every 100 extremely low-income renter households...

Ask Your Senators to Prioritize Global Health and Education
As Congress looks at its spending plan for 2020, it's your turn to tell them what they should prioritize. Smart investments in health and quality education programs in the world's poorest places can dramatically change the futures of women, children, and other...

Congress Must Address the Affordable Housing Crisis
Millions of low-income working families struggle because of our affordable housing crisis. Since 1960, renters' median earnings have gone up 5 percent while rents have risen by 61 percent -- and only 37 affordable and available rental homes exist for every 100 extremely...
