

Training Module 3

Acclimate-Basic Training

The Acclimate-Basic Training module will deepen your understanding of your accountabilities as a Group Leader and the processes that support your success and get you started in your Group Leader role.

Your Learning Objectives:

- Envision how you want to serve as a Group Leader
 - Be able to articulate why volunteering as a Group Leader with RESULTS is important to you
 - Deepen your understanding of the Group Leader role and how pivotal it is to both your group and overall RESULTS success
 - Understand the activist roles and the journey of engagement
 - Experience a well run group meeting and identify successful techniques

Your Learning Sequence:

- Overview of Learning Plan
- Write down your vision and goals for your work as a Group Leader and save, along with your Individual Planning Form, to maintain focus on the big picture while taking specific actions
- Review "You Aren't Dangerous Until You Can Speak Powerfully" and start building your own public narrative. Consider the following:
 - What is most meaningful to you about being able to support RESULTS? What inspires you?
 - How does being a Group Leader help you become the person you want to become in the world?
- Prepare to observe a group meeting
 - Review the Group Leader role description
 - Review the various leadership roles that you may see in action in the group meeting
 - Review specific advocacy actions and milestones via the Activist Toolkit
- Review these resources and prepare your own group leadership approach for creating consistent success
 - Tips on Having a Successful RESULTS group by Sam Daley Harris \(as shared at the 2008 RESULTS International Conference\)
 - Tips on Sustaining Groups
 - Tips on the "Quiet Leadership" style of coaching and leading
- Attend and observe a well-run group meeting
 - Notice successful techniques you can use
 - Think through an observation plan and any questions you have

- Note down any techniques you can use and discussion points for your weekly region meetings
- Participate in weekly regional Group Leader calls led by your Regional Coordinator. (RESULTS staff will work to connect you with your Regional Coordinator.)
